I ATTEND COLLEGE IN CT BUT AM FROM ANOTHER STATE, WHERE DO I VOTE?

There are some college students who would prefer to vote in their home state. Each State's deadlines for registering to vote and obtaining an absentee ballot are different. Make sure you check with that State's Secretary of State. If you are already registered to vote in another state, you may choose to vote by casting an absentee ballot in that state. Visit www.sots.ct.gov/vote, for more info and links to other Secretary of States' websites.

I AM FROM CT AND ATTENDING COLLEGE IN CT (OR IN ANOTHER STATE), HOW DO I VOTE BACK IN MY HOMETOWN?

You are able to apply for an absentee ballot if you are out of your town on the day of the election and for a few other reasons. After you mail in your absentee ballot application to the local Town Clerk, they will mail you back your absentee ballot to fill out and send back. For links and deadlines to apply visit www.sots.ct.gov/vote

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN MY PHYSICAL AND MAILING ADDRESS?

A mailing address is some place where you are able to receive mail and your physical address is where you are located. Your physical address determines where you vote, not mailing address. Some colleges use your dorm room or apartment number as both your physical and mailing address, where some do not. An example would be you live in Smith Hall but you get your mail delivered to the Student Center. Your mailing address could be 5555 Education Circle, College in CT, Anytown, CT, 06000; where your physical address would be 101 Smith Hall, College in CT. Visit www.sots.ct.gov/vote, for more info.

WHAT HAPPENS IF I MISS ONE OF THE REGISTRATION DEADLINES, CAN I STILL REGISTER AND VOTE ON NOV. 4TH? (ELECTION DAY REGISTRATION)

You may register and vote in person on Election Day if you meet the eligibility requirements for voting in this state and you are not already registered, OR you are registered in one town and want to change your registration because you currently reside in another town. Election Day Registration is not available at your polling place. Contact your local registrar of voter's office for information about your town's designated EDR location and ID requirements. You will need to provide proof of identity and residency. Visit www.sots.ct.gov/vote, for more info.
