Blackboard

- Blackboard is the “Learning Management System” (LMS) used to deliver online, hybrid, and web-enhanced courses.
- You will have access to your on-campus, online, or hybrid courses seven days before each semester starts.
- Please direct content specific inquiries to your instructor regarding their use of the online course shell.
- In addition to the courses that you have registered for, you will have access to a “Blackboard Learn Student Orientation” course.
How to Login to Blackboard

- Login by going to: http://my.commnet.edu, login, then select Blackboard using either link:
How to Login to Blackboard (Bb)

- Direct links and other information will also be available through the Tunxis Online webpage: http://tunxis.edu/distance-learning/
- This page has a link which takes you to the myCommNet login page, which then takes you to the same page seen in the previous slide.

Blackboard Updates

Do not use Internet Explorer with Blackboard.
It no longer allows file uploads or file attachments and causes navigation issues. Having issues with other browsers in Blackboard?
• Check your browser/version
• Clear your browser’s cache

If you continue to have problems, please report issues and provide this info: browser being used, what was being done in Bb, time it happened, Course ID (CRN).

  ○ January 16th (1:00 PM)

Visit the Faculty Training Calendar
Scroll to the bottom until you see Webinar’s Community Colleges Faculty and Staff.

Blackboard Student Mobile

Download the BB Student app. Search on “Connecticut Community Colleges” (not your individual college).
Select Your Current Course

Click on the appropriate course name listed in the “My Courses” module on the “My Institution” tab.
Course Interface

Clicking on the menu item will take you to that content area, module or tool.

Please note: Some instructors may utilize the “Email” or “Course Messages” tool while others may not use either OR may use both (Check your syllabus for specifics).

- Email – is an external email tool that utilizes your Office 365 email account.
- Course Messages - are internal to the Blackboard environment.
Course Content and View Will Vary by Course

- Each of your instructors has the ability to design their course so you can expect layout and content to be different for each course you take.
- Your instructor might use the “Announcements” tool to communicate with you.
It is Important to Logout of Blackboard
